Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 19, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

You say that serving us is the biggest joy in your life, you see that it is not useless as you thought for a very long time.

"Until the end, life is full of surprises.

"Every human being, whatever his possibilities, serves the divine plan.

"There is no need to be a hero; bravery can be expressed at all times, modestly and without causing a stir. The fact of living and struggling for all sorts of reasons is praiseworthy.

"Modest lives, without grand gestures in the eyes of others, can be rich in the way they are accomplished.

"It is the alchemy that takes place at the heart level that can make the difference.

"So many wonders can happen in this place, which is as precious a place as any.

"The most insignificant person can possess some hidden treasures that no other human being can detect.

"Wealth is not where one generally expects it to be, but you our candidates, you have understood that, since your commitment shows that you know where the true values are.

"Appearances are misleading. Wanting to go beyond the illusion that subjugates this world is the most sensible initiative that can be taken by a human being."
