Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 14, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

The harvest is nice. One day it will feed a large number of hearts.

"Do not just view it as a pile of papers where what we say each day is registered.

"The first reading does not reveal a teaching of major importance.

"If you try hard to live according to them, you will be surprised to note the transformation that takes place in you with time.

"We do not intend to use flowery words and make big philosophical speeches that do not necessarily leave any mark in the hearts.

"You are capable of understanding these gems. It would be a shame not to see them; they line your way, often darkened by the many problems of daily life.

"The current way of life in your societies wrongly stimulates your senses. Without your being aware of it, noises and images badger you to the detriment of your inner life.

"You have a vital need for silence and meditation, which many people cannot meet as they are bogged down in that system whereby not enough place is allocated to man to discover his true nature.

"His balance is consequently disrupted. He can no longer define himself in this permanent hubbub. Only moments of retreat and silence, in his own presence, would enable him to open out and accept his life here below.

"You, our candidates, you know the remedy to these evils. It is only up to you that it embellishes your days."
