Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, December 16, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

As long as you have patience to read us and really demand it, we will not remain insensitive to your call.

"Can a father be short of ideas to say to his children? He is guided by his heart which makes him find the appropriate words and arguments capable of reasoning with them when necessary. It is the way you are; your reactions to outstanding events inspire our remarks.

"We follow you step by step and we try to light your road, both beautiful and enriching, but also fraught with sinuous and treacherous obstacles.

"The palette of your life is very rich. The subtlety of the colours that make it up allows for skilful mixing by you.

"You are the artist, and, in a way, it is up to you to embellish it and build it in the most pleasant way. You are the only one who can add touches of paint to the painting to make it nice and luminous.

"You must know how to play with nuances, contrasts and a wide range [of colours] which will enable you to sign the work that your life constitutes with an indelible and unique mark of its kind."
