Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, December 16, 2000 - 10:30 a.m.

You offered your life to us; we use it, in the noblest sense of the word. We submit you to a tight schedule, entirely devoted to service. We fill your heart with grace; it is a profitable exchange, between your heart and ours. A vibratory power results from it and benefits those who are around you.

"Whether they feel it or not, that is the fact of the matter. Love is the engine of the world.

"It is capable of sweeping everything away and yet building all. Hence, rejoice, my child, and unlike what you do now, do not be afraid any more of opening your heart in the presence of the faithful hearts which surround you.

"What you are doing, they also can do; you take them in your wake.

"One day, they will recognise it and they will be grateful for the opportunity they have been given to rub shoulders with you.

"We know that those remarks will hurt your modesty a lot, but all that had to be said.

"Accept them with all humility, like a blessing emanating from our part."
