Thursday, November 5, 1998 – 10:30 a.m.

The Medium: What is happening in the world is dreadful, towards what are we heading, Babuji?

Very hard times, [...] France will not be spared, life there will not be rosy. I am happy to see you attracting souls through me. I like your little meeting. You have my blessings. Do your abhyas well, it is important. A little more patience for the ashram; it is in the process of rebuilding itself, we see to it. As for Patrick, and what he thinks about the messages, it's not important. He is going his own way, you are going yours. One day, you will join.

So it is.

(In the afternoon with Françoise and Anne-Marie, we meditate; Babuji has come and said to me.)

We are preparing you for a special work. Your friends will benefit from it, and they benefit from it as of now; you can tell them.

Babuji