Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 21, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

Continue to advance every day as you do. Detach yourself as much as possible from the useless. Do not try to understand what will happen tomorrow and why we do not underline what we expect from you. There too, things are done naturally, at their own pace. Surrendering was always beneficial for you; live intensely the present moment, it is elusive. Life flies away in a flurry of wings and cannot come back.

"What is not done is lost, therefore focus on the work you are doing for us, with all the strength of your love.

"It shows through these lines; your energy runs through them.

"You write down one word after another which touches your soul and which will touch others after you.

"That is the reason for this endless work which we ask you to do.

"It is carried out in the best possible state of heart.

"We have nothing else to say on that matter. The readers of these messages can trust you; they are the pure reflection of our thought."
