Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, January 6, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

ou will be happy for your brother; we will do everything possible to help him. Do not worry about his departure; let his wife not worry either. His stay on Earth was a step in his evolution, he has yet to go a long way and we will help him advance in the right direction.

"That is the way reincarnations on Earth are. They follow one another, without notable changes, and then comes a moment when everything changes; the desired level is reached, or the grace is such that the opportunity to actually progress is there. In both cases, opportunity is given to the entity to efficiently go ahead and then progress can be made quickly.

"Each day of life is a step to go through; each day offers the opportunity to surpass oneself. Ordeals carry a different meaning when one's existence is viewed from this angle. It is soothing to ensure that the assessment of the day is positive.

"Not everything is perfect; absolute saintliness is rare, but one single heart impulse, spontaneous and fully selfless, can embellish the saddest day. Let it be your offering to the Creator, no matter whether you are happy or unhappy."
