Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, January 11, 2001 - 8:30 a.m.

re not you satisfied with our music any more? [8]
"Serving on Earth or elsewhere does not matter, what matters is service. Don't you understand it this way any more?

"What else can we tell you which we had not already said? We understand your heart's impatience to come and rejoin us, for we also felt it intensely. The days which follow one another are like acts of love to be offered, according to one's state of heart. See only this side of things, offer generously and consider most of your actions in line with that way of doing things. You will thus recover your liking for striving, for giving of your best, as you usually do so well.

"You play an important role; do not underestimate it as usual. You were granted gifts which many would like to have, even if they do not realise what that implies. There is a downside to it, the disadvantages of which have to be put up with.

"Regain self-confidence. These messages will be appreciated by many souls who demand such. There are many more than you can imagine who are searching for their way, outside of religious constraints. The simplicity of our remarks will be able to touch hearts.

"Do not regard as useless either your interventions or references made to you. These messages form a whole which is living and which takes into account the human person.

"In painting, the greatest masterpiece is made up of contrasting shades, which complement and highlight each other.

"That is how it is, my daughter; regain strength to recover your liking for action."

[8] This sentence of Celine had been in my thoughts and my remarks for a few days: "Not much music left inside us for life to dance to."
