Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Monday, January 15, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

These statistical results are impressive. More than a thousand messages have been received so far, which represent a lot of work. The team has the hang of things and it seems that that can last indefinitely. We will continue for a while and we will move on to something else.

"The crop is nice; each one can see themselves in these very varied remarks and live on this special teaching, according to the aspirations of their hearts. A reader's interest in these writings is proportional to both his open-mindedness and his actual spiritual thirst; it is a question of personal sensitivity.

"The messages exist and life will take possession of them at its convenience.

"They carry a word straightforward and accessible to all. In the future, an enthusiastic desire to return to basics will be felt.

"The need for a truth free of superfluities will be felt very deeply.

"Man, in dire straits facing the harshness of the times, will turn to his Creator, beseeching the help of grace.

"Our way will be part of the means offered to man to enable him to find his true identity, his unique and solid bond with Divinity."
