Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, January 27, 2001 - 9:30 a.m.

Accept the monotony of the days. If your body must be restricted to being locked up, think that one day these writings will fly from continent to continent for the good of many beings who will be eager to read them.

"See only this aspect of things and the joy you feel when serving us. These contacts must be preserved; they cannot occur anytime and anywhere. Your physical and channeling state weakens you; we must protect you from certain degrading vibrations, which would disturb the transmission channel.

"We thus refer to the subtle side of the operation, which must be taken into account.

"See how the current high technology is sensitive and can easily be put out of order. Good antiquated equipment would require less fine-tuning and monitoring.

"This comparison aims to make you comprehend that the subtlety of our communication system is equally subjected to some very precise rules, with regard to your condition and your environment.

"There are disadvantages associated with a special kind of service. We have noted already for a long time that you understand and accept, in your depths, all the implications of our very special contract. You abide by it with love, surrender and joy.

"We bless you, my daughter."
