ee the hand of God in everything.

"Regard yourself as serving permanently. Offer your availability like an act of love, experienced intensely and felt in all your being.

"Cultivate this vibratory frequency, which makes you live between these two worlds and allows you to receive us so easily.

"Be attentive, my child: a new leaf is turned over and another history starts with the next one.

"Your assistants understood that the new format of certain texts have additional interest for them. The idea should be worked out. These writings are rich; they offer many possibilities at all levels, including that of presenting them in various ways. Their interest for these messages makes them discover all the subtlety thereof.

"Reactions, caused by these writings around you, offer you a glimpse of what they will produce when they are known. The personality of each one is a determining factor in this business.

"These messages exist. They will have their place in history and they will help many souls. Isn't this the essence? So, continue on your way with the satisfaction of meeting our expectations well. We know that that is enough to make you happy."
