Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, February 25, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Why could you not catch us today? You just have to be on the wavelength of the transmitting source, as usual. It would be preferable for you not to get involved in disturbing conversations, just before our contact. The channel should not be jammed, as you know. You know how to clean the mind; it is only up to you to recover serenity.

"Plunge within and let yourself be carried towards luminous banks, this refuge where you can disregard turbulence and where your heart can catch written pages intended for you on the book of life.

"We leave these messages there, and you receive them in a state where time and your means of assessment do not prevail. We established this ritual at fixed hours, for most of our contacts, to make things easier for you. Your existence is regulated by precise schedules, to which we adjust ourselves in certain circumstances.

"The vibrations of thought really spread at a speed you cannot really appreciate. As for imagining how our contacts occur, that remains beyond the understanding of most humans, hence the difficulty of admitting to this process.

"May open minds fully benefit from the results of these many messages."
