Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, March 1, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Unity of tone prevails between all these messages written over the years, even if they have another density in the current series.

"Curious spirits will consider their various characteristics and will analyse them in detail. That will seem exaggerated to certain readers, but they will be found interesting by beings who achieved, inside themselves, the harmony between the heart and the spirit, thus unifying their various levels of knowledge.

"They will not be uninteresting for everyone. We have targeted a level of the broadest comprehension possible, which does not exclude certain profundity. The example is given with all the sacred literature, which was purposely made understandable by all. Finally, simplicity lets in many more truths than it seems at the first reading.

"The human being's knowledge is profound and independent from all his acquired knowledge. This knowledge is its personal hallmark; to some extent, it characterises the individual. Diplomas are not to be taken into consideration in this personal wealth.

"These writings will be received in various ways, according to the level of consciousness of the readers. Each human being is unique: that is the characteristic of this world."
