Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, March 8, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "You are such a poet, Babuji, that my heart melts while reading you after having taken note."

y dear daughter, if you lived these messages since the beginning, day after day, in terms of each subject covered and which is likely to help you, you will have made progress – it is inevitable. Our remarks penetrated your hearts and they marked them. How could it be different! It is the reason why they are given to you. It is up to you to draw the substance of it, to immerse yourself in it. So, you have 'everything', but what is lacking in your heart? Did your faith develop through this long process? We cannot force this. Did our songs touch it? We have skilfully moderated them to please you.

"What more can we do? Should we tell you that we love you? You know it already. Is your heart conquered, does it sing with us, or do you continue on your road, paying more attention to the world noises, this over-populated world whose excesses are terrifying?

"We have gone a long way together, for the better, we hope. You have all our blessings."
