Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Once again we will come back to surrender. It is the engine of spiritual life. You must particularly work on this aspect of your personality. Without it you cannot advance and then your ego gains the upper hand.

"In each situation, the ego confuses the game and you cannot therefore recognise the real opportunity for you to work on tendencies which slow down your evolution. Be vigilant: your old demons are hidden in the darkness. Incomprehension sometimes covers certain insidious faults of which envy and jealousy prompt you to judge too quickly. Judgement must be banished as a priority. It stifles your discernment.

"Be wary of hasty and misconceived reactions which are likely to lead you to viewpoints or actions that are undesirable for you.

"May you not bristle at our recommendations! You sometimes lose your temper, without even being aware of it and it is only afterwards that you realise your mistake, when common sense reasserts itself.

"Each human being must more or less face his weaknesses. It is necessary not to shirk from humbly admitting them.

"Work toward your own progress with rigour and be tolerant with others, since in a certain manner, you see in them what you do not want to admit is in you."
