Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, March 16, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Shift your thought from the world's baseness up to the higher level where you will come one day at the end of your Earthly life. You will be able to show your true worth and help according to your wishes. All will be different for you; that active life will suit you better. In that dimension your actions will be constructive in your sense of the word. That world where you set your mark will puzzle you in the beginning.

"You will need to be adaptable; you will start a new kind of mission related to your true personality which is not revealed while on the Earth. It is an amazing world for an entity coming from your planet: there your gifts will come out in other fields, after an assessment and rest period.

"Eternal rest and bliss belong to religious imagery. It is neither all roses nor in black-and-white terms as the imagery suggests. Life at other levels does not correspond to remarks usually circulated which either reassure or frighten men.

"New worlds with different rules await men and they will have to deal with them. They should not try to imagine them so that it will be a total discovery. In conclusion, be reassured: your departure from the Earth is not the end of your life; it is rather a beginning, to some extent.

"Put the loss of a dear being into perspective. He has completed his life on Earth and continues it elsewhere, for his own evolution."
