Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

earch and see only the beauty in man and around you. Do like the lotus which grows up towards the light, disregarding the mud from which it emerges. By seeing only beauty, you make the world progress. To see it in the image of the Creator, results in giving it a chance to change.

"Men suffer on this path of slavery where they are advancing. Do they call God in their heart and long for His grace? Each soul is ready to receive it. One blessed moment is enough for everything to change radically. One should not despair of humanity; it is changing in its own way. Life is tough here below.

"Call in you this new stage when all your brothers and sisters will advance together on the Earth and in the same direction.

"This dream is not utopian, to God nothing is impossible. Imagine, create in you as you please this future world where men will respect what surrounds them, their fellow creatures and the whole of creation.

"This time will come, in a very distant future. Circumstances will take place whereby human beings will finally understand that only that which is sowed can be harvested."
