Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, March 25, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Your life is marked out by ordeals, some of which are painful. When you must advance in the darkness generated by them, never forget that the sun is shining above your heads, even if temporarily this notion escapes you. In these circumstances, your wealth consists of knowing that another 'elsewhere' exists and that all does not end after this Earthly life. Ordeals allow you to grow; they are initiatory according to the way you accept them.

"Joys drive out sorrows; nothing is immutable, in either way. Life is movement and renewal; these two aspects characterise life on this planet.

"You should be adaptable and able to draw lessons from all states which you experience. Be happy from the bottom of your hearts, since as you will know on arrival at the port, all will need to be reconsidered and you will have to set out again on a new basis.

"Make sure to not reach it empty-handed. Remain confident of this future status. Think of it and build in you the building that will withstand this ultimate crossing."
