We intensively appreciate the possibility to express ourselves to our son by this way. Do you realize what that represents to us, even though this means seems quite natural to you now?

"We are satisfied to see him reasonably slowing down his activity. He can reduce it for a while and then he will see. The main thing is that he does his work, and he can do it from anywhere. Physically, he is not a superman. His resistance is great, but it is normal that he spares himself, for his own and everyone's good.

"The Mission needs him. In a sense, he is irreplaceable, hence our insistence on asking him to spare himself. We are very attentive to everything that concerns him. We follow his footsteps and assist him as much as possible.

"Although he has made a good decision concerning Dubai, we answer him through these lines that will comfort him. You can therefore transmit them to him; they are not personally directed to him, but in the first instance, they are an answer to his mail. We will come back to that mail in a few days, when your health has improved.

"May he feel through these lines, all our attention and love for him."
