Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, April 6, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Do not be afraid, these messages will be read, appreciated and even sought-after. They are and will remain, over time, simple teachings accessible to all including 'wits' who will find them interesting in many respects. The beauty of a style lies in the profundity of arguments presented and in certain cases, a poetry embodied in this kind of text.

"This work is not done in vain. We will not convince every reader, but few of them will remain indifferent to it. The majority will be touched by the sincerity and the truth emanating from it. Therefore, believe me, my daughter: you will be agreeably surprised on this issue. We will not be able to avoid criticisms and incomprehension of this kind of communication, but in the future these messages will be a great success in all countries where they will be published.

"We cannot please everybody; to move hearts willing to receive them is a great success. To help them have a clear understanding of themselves, understand the goal of life and its ordeals and joys, and to become aware of the potential contained in the depths of the being is a wise and quite legitimate hope.

"Many souls are ready and do not recognise themselves in any religious system, or, the latter do not provide them any more what they really expect. It is from this point of view that these writings also have their raison d'être."
