Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, April 8, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Reference is made to your question, my daughter: you cannot easily picture the world where we live. We will only refer to the relational aspect between beings. Desire, jealousy and hatred are abolished. Brotherhood, tolerance and comprehension are therein the prelude to love.

"The quest for perfection is permanent; aspiration to remain united to the Divine is integrated into our cellular life. We vibrate in the same subtle energy. A constant heavenly harmonic unifies our songs. We love in unison and only see the beauty and purity of the place.

"Our recognition towards the Creator is boundless; it is only equalled by our incommensurable love.

"It is painful and gruelling, in terms of vibrations, to return to suffering worlds.

"What else can we say? We will not be able to actually enjoy the delights of this world as long as our human brothers, or those evolving on other planets and subjected to almost unbearable ways of life, have not been released from their chains.

"The following goal is our priority: a time of relief for all the creatures of God."
