

Sunday, April 8, 2001 - 9:30 PM

My dear son,

"You still have some more happy years ahead of you, to bed the Mission's foundations. It is advancing in spite of everything. It is put into orbit and will, at all costs, follow its own path. Keep joyful, whatever may happen. Human beings inevitably make trouble. Keep your eyes focused on summits, instead of looking down at miasmas in the valley. Advance courageously, as you always did. We are very satisfied and support you in all. That is what we wanted to tell you tonight, my dear son.

"With all our blessings."

Babuji