Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, April 15, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Advance with confidence and be surrendered, my dear daughter. God is great; He allows time to sort out most problems. Solutions occur by themselves; more often than not, what seemed insurmountable finds an unexpected solution.

"Live on faith and love, as you have always done. Life is a long river full of surprises, the good and bad ones, as well as eddies and peaceful beaches.

"Keep serenity in you. No matter what happens, your eternity will not be affected. What nourishes your heart is more precious than anything else.

"Your joys and your sorrows serve to distil this food; your surrendering while being confronted with them transcends everything.

"Let yourself be carried by life, while focusing on the very powerful beacon which illuminates it; it alone is immutable. It never rests. It is always active, present in any event, healing the wounds, gladdening the hearts and restoring courage to people in despair. When everything is lacking, it appears and can bring new hope.

"This divine power guides your lives, if you so wish. Call for it unceasingly, letting it manifest itself in you in the way that is the most in accordance with your destiny.

"We will never repeat often enough the notion of surrender. What would love be without it? How could the thread of destiny be woven without this weft that makes itself available and willing so that God's plans can be achieved?"
