Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, April 16, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

All that can make one sing of love is blessed. To love is the noblest feeling. What is more beautiful in this world where so many ugly aspects and atrocities are perpetuated, where one attacks what is beautiful and what is good for man, where violence and hunger prevail in many parts of the world! The evil is making its way, imperturbable, often hiding under misleading attractions, fake paradises that destroy in man what is sacred in him.

"Therefore, in the face of this picture which cannot be ignored, how and why are beings attacked who aspire only to beauty, to seeking in themselves the sublime and the divine? Humanity is made like that. This situation is depressing, but we cannot change it. Let us continue to work towards the salvation of the world, each one of us at our own level with our own means, big or small, but united, all together, to change life.

"It will take time for the sky to light up, for the light to reach the most deprived in their soul and heart so that the truth will come to light in them. This time will come; until the end, we will fight so that it can happen. Does a father abandon his children? He sends off the strongest and the most experienced to act in such a way that, one day, they all return towards him, having understood where the real life was."
