Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

We appreciate this collection: 'The songs of the spirit'. Its elements are well chosen and presented with finesse. This collection is like a crystal pearl lying atop the whole of these messages, some of which are not heartening.

"They are also – so we wish for all – suffused with hope for better times and sufficiently rewarding to encourage you in your spiritual journey.

"We often emphasise what constitutes a handicap in such a process. We know the relevant traps, pitfalls, hence our insistence on underlining some human traits.

"Nobody is perfect. If it were true, people would know about it quickly, such an exception would be noticed. We only have one goal, one desire: to help you as usual.

"How many hearts will these messages reach? When will they be known more largely? We do not know exactly.

"They exist, they have their own life, and time will give them the place they deserve.

"They are, as of now, at the disposal of some privileged people. What interest and reactions do they generate in them? After having come a long way with these writings, what is their assessment? That is the question.

"We hope, with the help of the same words repeated tirelessly, that we have touched hearts and contributed to showing to them life in a different light."
