Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, April 22, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, you are advancing, in spite of the difficulties that you have been overcoming throughout your life. If you take stock of the situation, you can note how much you were helped by faith.

"What would you have become without it? Your existence was transformed by it.

"Without this refuge, how can man face up to things? Ordeals are part and parcel of the process; they are necessary for his evolution. Without them, he could not develop in a satisfactory way.

"He must learn lessons that enable him to open his eyes on the reality of his existence. Life is a teaching, the most useful possible and the only one remaining in him beyond this incarnation.

"Understanding well this principle is a serious asset, and always behaving according to this truth is another one.

"That is the best and the most constructive thing we can wish for you to make a success of your life."
