Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, April 23, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

ou are going through a difficult period and we will not overburden you today.

"You have such a mass of messages to read, re-read and especially decode, that we can slow down.

"With time, if you resume this reading, other truths will appear to you, which had escaped you. These writings are richer than they seem; it is up to you to discover them according to the aspirations of your heart.

"We try to give you the fundamental elements, and not to overwhelm your mind with details or descriptions likely to satisfy your curiosity; that is not our objective. We prefer to remain within the limits of what is necessary for your progress. The latter must take place slowly but surely. We want the best for you and, especially, to make you avoid disappointments.

"We do not promise you 'everything' without your own efforts; who could provide you with such a result?

"You accept the rules we propose to you and you follow them by doing the work that falls to you. We are following you and helping you as much as possible.

"The conjunction of these respective commitments will give you the best results.

"Be confident in yourself and us; your aspirations will be fulfilled."
