Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, April 25, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

y dear daughter, your life is exemplary on this point: you are sanctifying it through your suffering. That can be wrongly interpreted; we have nothing to do with this life choice. It is yours; mine also went through the same way, which is not unique in this world. One's life path has different aspects which are suited to the desired results; nothing impossible is requested. Grace is associated with the most trying ordeals; they are, as we said, blessings destined for humans. It is difficult to consider them from that standpoint, without being fully aware of the higher interests.

"We will therefore address once more the issue of surrender – the only thing that can save a being from the despair that takes over in the most difficult moments of his life. Man advances most of the time without understanding or being able to imagine the reason for the difficulties standing in his way. This principle is rather disconcerting for a not well-informed soul.

"It takes so much faith, surrender and courage to make a success of this path by making as few mistakes as possible!

"Only love can lead to the admission of this difficult reality as belonging to a principle of evolution aimed at one's own liberation."
