Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, April 26, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Babuji, let me serve you more and more, better and better."

You are serving, my child. What more do you want? Be satisfied with the current state.

"To be in service in our way means primarily: to do one's abhyas correctly. To work for oneself is to work for the multitude.

"You should not forget this principle, which perhaps does not seem obvious to you. Almost all sacred texts take up these comments, formulated in another way. Without dwelling on that and giving you complicated explanations that are not in line with the style of these messages, we will simply say that all harmonious vibrations emanating from a heart in meditation, as well as thoughts of love and all that elevate your thoughts, benefit all of your brothers. It is a well-established rule.

"Think of the multitude of beings who meditate every day, devoting time to this practice and who pray for the good of humanity. This egregore is powerful; it constitutes a power that neutralises the effects of another power, a negative one.

"That is how your sadhana elevates you, while contributing to a noble cause.

"You are, collectively and individually, beacons illuminating the darkness, like the stars in a dark sky.

"Is there anything more beautiful than this sight delighting man's heart? It shows him the infinite greatness of the divine creation."
