Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, April 27, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Great guides of humanity have never stopped appearing since the mists of time and that will not end. New paths are given to men to enable them to move forward.

"Those means are suited to the evolutionary level of the aspirants; each one must be able to find what is suitable for himself, according to his aspirations.

"Over the incarnations, the soul awakens; it reaches its apotheosis after a lot of erring ways. It is the nature of things; there is no exception to the rule on this point.

"Victory is therefore all the more beautiful, more commendable. We are happy to provide the world with a reliable way of advancing in the best of conditions. We are working in this direction with all the perseverance and love that motivate our action. We will be happy when all our brothers have reached the targeted level. Only then, rest could be considered, but how meaningful will it be where we are? This notion does not even cross our minds. What matters is to serve tirelessly. Our greater joy is to see a soul awakening to life, to the sublime reality of creation in its most perfect, unique and divine aspects."
