Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, April 29, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Everything in this world is mere illusion. You are nothing more than a representation of yourselves, some assembled molecules, vibrating and in tune with this planet's vibrations.

"Keep well in mind this illusory aspect of your person, only take seriously what is essential.

"The rest, that is your little daily life, your habits and worries about everything or nothing, what is it compared to eternity? A trifle. What only matters is the purpose of your existence in the great divine plan, as well as your place in it, minor though it may be.

"This plan does not comprise any dissonance; you must make sure to be able to adapt perfectly to it, by adjusting as well as possible to this sublime pattern.

"All your efforts must be focused on this quest. Once you have become aware, you should not lose sight any more of your objective. All consists in succeeding in this adjustment which will enable you to find again your real place, your homeland.

"Understand clearly what is implied in this speech: the process has already started for you, you are on your way and you are shaping your destiny.

"You have understood where your priorities are, as well as the efforts to be made to reach the goal.

"It is up to you to make your choices in life; nobody can do it for you.

"May you then be inspired and after a hard-fought struggle win this unceasing and fruitful fight.

"Be blessed in your undertakings."
