Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, April 30, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

These messages, in a certain way, are starting to soar. Under their apparent simplicity, they will be able to touch men's hearts.

"Some of them will find them meaningless; when they are not ready to be received, they cannot touch the right chord. Others will consider that they come just at the right moment and will welcome them.

"Relax, my daughter, gain stature; this celebration day is special.

"Graces are bestowed on men of goodwill. May your hearts, wherever you are, be feeling them. Set aside moments for meditation; be united in prayer. Think of your brothers who do not have the luck to be on the path towards the ultimate goal of their existence.

"A very big gathering cannot take place this year in India for climatic reasons. Therefore this celebration is being held in another way. It teaches you how to create within yourself special conditions that enable you to feel the effects produced by the union of all hearts converging towards the same celebration. Feel within yourself the power of this egregore which intensifies as time goes by. Be happy to belong to this family of souls that is growing prodigiously. Let yourself be carried away by this mysterious wave which is rising up to your feet.

"You can thank for being blessed like that. Please, become aware of that fact, that is what we are hoping today."
