Your channelling capabilities must be maintained for the sake of their full acuity. We try to take as little of your energy as possible. This action has become necessary to your life; it makes it take on its meaning and we will maintain you in this state as long as possible. You can, right now, be reassured about the future impact of these messages. We didn't write pages with hollow words and stock phrases. Our comments are of a different nature. Although they are not of a literary nature, well-informed hearts will find in them appropriate food for their spiritual aspiration. Libraries are crammed with books addressing all possible topics; by these messages we distinguish ourselves within the Mission. They will end up finding their place, even if everybody does not admit them. Minds should not be rushed; the best-informed ones will find this means of communication suitable and will feed themselves with this special teaching. Most of the time, the most inspiring writings all over the world are produced in this way. Let us not anticipate; let's continue this productive tête-à-tête, fruit of a special relationship which will be able to help our brothers and sisters in many respects. Such is our objective and our wish."
