Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, May 17, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, you have understood it for a long time, loving God is a fundamental concept. The being cannot find its true dimension without this faculty of opening itself to love. Blessed are simple hearts entirely turned towards this noble destination: always going further ahead in this sublime search by devoting oneself to it, body and soul. These beings are vectors, which, in their turn, radiate a subtle energy. What they receive, they give it again a hundredfold and this action can be felt well far off, from this point of impact up to the beyond. The divine energy knows no barrier; it is unlimited and its manifestation can take place ad infinitum.

"This energy is of a pure and unique essence; nothing can be compared to it.

"It is not easy to describe the imperceptible, the invisible to the human eye.

"While being refined, man's heart becomes more receptive; this possibility of grasping the unutterable unfolds before him; he remains stunned, while proceeding with this discovery. His surprises are far from over. Let faculties hitherto unsuspected develop in you. Let yourself be won over by Love, this power capable of everything, i.e., the best."
