Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, May 18, 2001 - 8:30 a.m.

No, the source has not dried up, what makes you think so? You were to ease your mind for our dialogue to start. We have not run out of arguments; the teaching we are trying to give through these messages must be accessible to all. When the floodgates of true knowledge have been opened, each of you can then try to get complementary information; we guide you and inspire you for that. We must remain within the limits that we have set for ourselves – our comments. When consciousness opens up to reality, useful information unfolds. The most important part of the work having been done, it is then enough to give the appropriate food that deepens the way already mapped out. Additional elements of esoteric knowledge are provided to you in due time, if necessary. Some souls, completely detached from this form of teaching, glide over formulas and images; they feed themselves only with the divine essence. When you have reached this level, you will need no book-related reference; you will be beyond words and details concerning the history of creation. The thirst for knowledge you are experiencing is commendable, it is a critical milestone in your progress. When the time has come, we will lead you far beyond into a kingdom of beauty and knowledge currently inaccessible to you. Continue on your way with all our encouragements and our blessings."
