Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Tuesday, May 22, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Yes, we all searched before finding the way. That is how humans operate before reaching what is suitable for their level of evolution. Opportunities arise when the moment has come and, then, the real work can begin and bear its fruits. There are no other means; when a soul is ready, the Master who is intended for it appears and this is a determining encounter. Will fusion take place? All depends on the aspirant's ardour and on how he will lead his sadhana. The Master accompanies, he doesn't lead by force; this collaborative action is voluntarily agreed upon and can lead to the highest level of perfection. All the beauty of our way can then appear and delight the fervent hearts that manage to surrender with confidence and love. Thus this process is tirelessly repeated. It is part and parcel of the rules laid down in conformity with man's evolution. All is programmed in advance; there is no room for whim in this system.

"Each one has one's own role to play; one's ardour must overcome all the obstacles that inevitably occur. This is how it goes in any initiatory process. Nothing can be acquired easily. Until the end of time, the same rites and the same effects will tirelessly be reproduced to honour the divine plans."
