Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

This special communication will be recognised in the future. Earthmen as a whole will have to accommodate themselves to it: it is possible to have contacts with us. Some beings have this faculty, why not admit it? This fact always existed, and among some people it is common and much practised. They also possess a wisdom transmitted over time, enlightened by guides [standing] by their sides. All is simple for them; their mind is not tortured, the ancestors protect them. Their way of thinking is different from yours, but it is right basically, even if rituals are added to it that have no relevance to our comments.

"Why do your purportedly advanced societies reject what is not codified according to their standards? Man's capacities are amazing, but are relatively unused. The moment has not come yet; the coming era will foster their development. These capacities will have to be used for the good of men: they will have to be handled with discernment. The notion of good and evil will remain and vigilance will have to prevail to avoid going to extremes. Evolution on the Earth is taking place slowly, even if it is nearing a pivotal moment when everything can turn upside down and trigger the movement. Be that as it may, a time of adaptation is necessary to man, who cannot be subjected to modifications that are too brutal straightaway. He must get over this hurdle carefully, and through a phenomenon of osmosis he should find himself in a context fostering this metamorphosis."
