Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 26, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

Hasn't all that we have told you throughout these daily contacts convinced you of our presence by your side? How must we express ourselves to reassure you all and enlighten you about the vicissitudes of this fleeting incarnation?

Imagine you are on a trip, having to carry out a certain number of tasks required under your contract. Will your service record be satisfactory? The outcome depends only on you.

Let yourselves be carried away by the impulses of your heart, make sure they embellish your lives, they can transform the most commonplace into a true ray of sunshine.

Don't balk in the face of an obstacle, you would diminish your strength. See how an obstinate horse that shies away from an obstacle hinders its progress.

It jeopardizes all the efforts made previously – its behaviour severely impedes the pursuit of success, which is the goal of its current condition.

Don't get on your high horse because of this comparison with a specimen of the equine race; the thoroughbred has reached a level where mistakes are no longer permitted.

It must succeed, it no longer has any choice, on pain of being downgraded. It too, in its own way, is master of its fate.

We wanted to give a humorous twist to a teaching, presented from a different perspective that shows all of you the active part you take in your evolution.
