Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 28, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

Open the door to this 'elsewhere' which enables us to meet. One element of this secret code is love, it is emanating from you in this instant.

The ritual is always the same: you put yourself in the appropriate condition, cutting yourself off from the external world and opening the doors of your heart. Thus we can exchange and you note down, very carefully, what we tell you.

Amazed, reassured, trustful and always grateful for being chosen, such are your reactions. We appreciate our channel that conveys so well what we want to say.

With the particular vibration that emerges from these writings, our wish is to touch your hearts, putting them in resonance with other spaces, so different from yours.

Our comments are not likely to inflame your imaginations and to strike them, as do the science fiction movies some of you are so fond of. We prefer to remain measured – sensory reactions do not serve our purpose. To prompt good reactions in the long term, to encourage you all to take constructive resolutions that serve your advancement, to refine your perceptions by encouraging you to seek out, to create in you a condition conducive to our work, these too are the purposes of these messages, however commonplace they may seem to you.

More than one way is necessary to allow you to achieve the best, we make use of them; know how to appreciate this.
