Great things are being set up for the Mission. My son is working with utmost effectiveness."

The Medium: "How did he receive the messages?"

'He has appreciated them, but you know him; he does not express himself. You intimidate him; he never understood your attitude. That does not matter. You will meet one day and everything will be cleared. Let your heart be full of joy, my dear daughter."

The Medium: "Babuji, I love you so much..."

"I know; you are sincere. You are like a child, always doubting about yourself, but we appreciate you for what you are, so...! Would you have noted down all these messages if you could go to the ashram and elsewhere in the world —you, so sensitive and so receptive to anything? The current conditions are more favourable for us. Your vibrations are not disturbed by the outside world. That you are in this 'cocoon' facilitates our work on you, as well as our connection. Therefore, accept with joy and gratitude."

The Medium: "Forgive me, Babuji, for my complaining and not understanding that."

"It is only human, that's all!"
