Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, May 27, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

In response to your daily prayer: you are serving us faithfully. What more could you do under the circumstances of your current life? We are trying, in these days more difficult than usual, to infuse some poetry into these writings and to hearten you. We care for you – is this not normal? We are not as distant from this world as you think. We feel concerned by your ordeals, but what can we do concretely, except to make your living conditions easier, alleviating your sorrows and your sufferings, either physical or moral. Your karma must be settled and you must see the process through. Ours was not easy on this Earth; we were spared nothing. We know all of the human reactions; you are not isolated cases. The human mind is difficult to foresee; we can perceive it in its least impulses. Divest yourself of the useless, do not slow down your progress; succeeding is your challenge. Always plunge deeper in yourself to conquer the unutterable, the impalpable, the Divine. In this highly sacred place resides the culmination of the achievement of your efforts."
