Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, May 28, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My child, meditate. Are you not feeling well with us? Is it so difficult to isolate yourself, to make this effort to be with us? What else can we ask you when you cannot endure this body and you only aspire to leave it? You should continue; the moment has not come yet. No one can complete the remainder of your path in your place. You find it long, uncomfortable and heavy; we cannot do anything about it. Be constantly thankful for the opportunity bestowed on you to make a success of your life by using this potential for us. Can't you agree to carry on your way? Is such an experience not an exciting one? Many [people] would like to live it in your place. Life is short, be a little patient; one day you will look back nostalgically to this period when each day these contacts were uniting you with us. You are conveying our thought by aligning words which seem confusing to you sometimes. They are necessary; superfluous for some, right for others; they will be useful to all.

"Don't try to analyse, just continue to satisfy us, with the same spirit; all has its raison d'être. These messages exist and are starting a life which fervent hearts will be able to maintain."
