Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

It all has to be done; accept the ambient bustle. Be focused and let us resume our contact. We are happy to be able to communicate with your Master by this means; he needs this comfort. Managing the Mission in its current dimensions requires great receptiveness. It is important for him to spare himself, at the minimum, to fulfil his personal asceticism. This should not be forgotten. He too is following an endless path. Like all of us here, he is growing perpetually. Status quo mindset has no relevance in this contract. Life, at all levels, is movement and evolution. The entire creation is subjected to this law; we are no exception to this. Be happy about living, moving, acting, advancing. Love your life; accept it as the most beautiful gift. You cannot imagine how lucky you are to have reached this level. Think of your brothers who are not as lucky; they need you. Here below, you are a big family whose members should all unite for the good of each one."
