Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, June 7, 2001 10:00 a.m.

Most of these mutants we have mentioned earlier will have astounding psychic powers, as compared to those of today's man who will have no option but to get used to them. Whereas he does not admit easily that certain beings can communicate with the beyond – and many other things outside his reach – this awakening will be painful for the survivors of the current race, who will be stunned to witness this transformation. But let us not rush things; as far as you are concerned, your spiritual condition raises you above the average [status] and places you in a satisfying state of receptiveness. So are you reassured? That you believe in these messages shows your broadmindedness. You are at the cusp of two worlds. Consider all possibilities of change. Prepare in your heart for these future times, which your descendants will experience. Pray so that this mutation is achieved in the best perspective possible – in relation to the divine plan – whereby a new race of powerfully advanced beings will emerge and this planet will be led to a desirable regeneration."
