Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 9, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

As you can see, your channelling abilities are intact. On this there is nothing to fear; our contacts can continue. With time, we lead you to a broader open-mindedness, allowing you to seize what is hidden under some of our comments that may seem innocuous. The truth is not so straightforwardly obvious.

"A regular reading [of these messages] makes you grasp things that were not obvious before. In this area, knowledge deepens gradually; the intellect is excluded from this principle. You must conduct this reading in a special and meditative state of mind. Wisdom is infused in you slowly; it does not spring up in you with the suddenness of a flash of lightning. Your heart receives the divine seed, which evolves gradually thereafter. This detailed explanation is meant to make you understand that a hasty reading cannot provide you with the quintessence of these writings and of our literature, in general. Nothing about spiritual development is that simple; one has to deserve it and earn it through a brave struggle. Dissociate this work from your daily life. Reserve for it a special place and try to approach it in a spirit of surrender and humility, leaving aside for some time your usual criteria of judgement. You will advance in comprehension and the way of knowledge will widen before you."
