Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, June 10, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Be blessed for making my son happy. You can see from his reactions how much these messages are important to him. We thank our privileged intermediary for his efficiency. The work of a spiritual Master is endless. He knows no rest; being missioned at this level requires complete and unrestrained dedication. This represents at lot of work for an incarnate being who has the same constraints and obligations as any human being. These messages do him a power of good; they give him joy and encouragement to carry on, on his way. We will try to make sure that this special communication continues as long as possible; it holds an important place for him.

"As you can see, my daughter, your role is not negligible; we chose you with full knowledge of the facts. True mediums are rare, of which you are one; you meet a certain number of conditions, which include a prevailing heartfelt and trusting relationship. Things could not have been otherwise; this relationship gives a special touch to these writings by personalising them. Each one can recognise oneself in you; so never fear to express yourself and to let your heart express itself. This mode of expression is within the reach of all. Practise loving your brothers, helping them; we support you and bless you for that."
