Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, June 13, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

You are serving us faithfully. What more can we ask of you? Thanks to these messages, we have a teaching of a special essence that touches hearts.

"It does not resemble the teachings included in our books, although the objective is the same. Here, we want to go further by making you sensitive to the importance of your active participation in this process.

"You are surrendered to the work of the Master, yes, but yours is critical. We cannot stand as a substitute for your will, your rigour and your determination. You need all these ingredients to effectively conduct your sadhana. Close collaboration is necessary between the Master and the disciple. A close relationship, heartfelt, trusting and love-based, crowns it all. You made a choice when you joined our Mission; it corresponds to your profound aspirations. You like its sparseness; we do not conform to ritual ceremonies, nor do we engage in any scenographic performance aimed at impressing people's minds, but which does not facilitate the targeted interiorisation conducive to our work. You have gone beyond the need for external demonstrations, songs, group festivities that can tempt some people who find those processes to their liking. Sahaj Marg is a simple and effective way though divested of superfluity. You chose it and you continue to follow it. You are wise people and you will not be disappointed. The results will prove your choice to be judicious."
