Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, June 14, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Witnessing that the situation is evolving between my son and you makes us happy. It is not easy to lead you where we wish you to be. Your respective personalities did not facilitate this coming together. As the process is henceforth under way, your personalities should facilitate our great intention about these messages. It will have taken all these years to come up to a promising prospect. These messages are full of benefits, as you can see by yourselves, you who can feed on them. They will be able to tame minds that are ill disposed towards them.

"They are universal and within the reach of all, in their great simplicity.

"In some respects, they are like parables understandable and interpretable at various levels. It is up to the readers to exercise a little patience and an acute capacity for analysis to decode them. A vibratory reality is embodied in them, which one should grasp to effectively benefit from them. Happy are the hearts capable of appreciating this food.

"Modern life places man under destabilising conditions. He runs away from cities in search of fresh air and nature, but these repeated departures do not provide him with peace of heart or true relief if the soul does not find what it is yearning for. So many people thus wander throughout their life without understanding the true reasons of their dissatisfaction!

"Be happy, you who know and are engaged in a redeeming way."
