Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, June 14, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

It is true that we keep repeating ourselves. We revert to the same topics tirelessly. We have to proceed like this; it is the only way of sensitising the reader and really raising his awareness about a very simple reality.

"Spiritual progress does not require any rituals or complicated and demanding methods. It depends on one's way of living and regular work, supported by a means within the reach of all, such as this simple but very effective way of ours. Only a high level Master can lift up the chosen ones to an advanced stage. His work is the ultimate means to bring them to the final stage of reality.

"When the candidate, well-versed in all disciplines and having followed a promising process without being diverted from the targeted goal, can see the light dawn – which is the ultimate reward of his perseverance – he remains stunned and immensely grateful to the incarnate Master who alone can make him reach the last stage. This spiritual work, with its various typical phases, cannot be explained truly; it has no valid comparison in this world. It is specific to each one; the state of the heart is of primary importance. The onus is on you to make choices so your wishes and your steadfastness will be granted. Be blessed."
