Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 16, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Calm down your mind otherwise we will not be able to communicate. Let all these problems be resolved one by one. In spite of them, make the most of the present day, as well as the joy provided by this visit. These pure hearts are close to yours; you sing together the praises of the Divine. Surrendered to him, you are advancing in this work, while benefiting from a special asset and vibrating on the same harmonic line.

"May your hearts rejoice; you have done a good job, it remains to complete this work. It has already influenced you deeply; you no longer see life from the same perspective. By getting completely committed to this service, you have taken a great step. May you organise your life according to this commitment; you have a role to play, it is only starting. Your heart will keep the indelible mark of this grace which makes you advance, day after day, according to these writings that are influencing your soul deeply. It recognises itself in them; it feeds abundantly on them and gets carried away more and more each day: there is your reward. Keep this ardour in serving us; you are working for your own account.

"May you all be blessed!"
